

Conference Programme
„Ethnic Diversity in European Labor Markets: Challenges and Solutions for Slovakia and Europe“

Hotel Austria Trend Bratislava, Vysoká 2A, Staré Mesto, Bratislava
October 21st, 2010 (Thursday)

10:00 – 10:30 Conference Opening

Jozef Mihál (Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Labor, Social Affairs and Family of SR, TBC)
Martin Muránsky, Friedrich Ebert Stiftung, representation in SR

10:30 – 11:30 Key speech

Prof. Dr. Klaus F. Zimmermann (President of the Institute for the Study of Labor in Bonn)
„Ethnic diversity in the European labor markets“

11:30 – 11:45 Break

11:45 – 12:30 Presentation of the practical outcomes of the research

Martin Kahanec, Ph.D. (Institute for the Study of Labor in Bonn and CELSI in Bratislava)
„What we can learn from the EU experience “

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.30 Afternoon Panel

Bela Janky, Ph.D. (Budapest University of Technology and Economics)
„Labor market integration and disintegration of the Roma in Hungary“

Michal Vašečka, Ph.D. (Comenius University Bratislava)
„Social and labor market integration of ethnic minorities in Slovakia: The case of the Roma“

15:30 – 15:45 Break

15:45 – 16:30 Slávka Mačáková, Ph.D. (ETP Košice)
“Best practices of integration and disintegration of the Roma from the point of view of the NGO’s“

16:30 – 16:45 Closing Remarks