

Robert W. Bednarzik
Georgetown University
Georgetown Public Policy Institute (GPPI)
3520 Prospect Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20007
Phone 202 687 6901
410 381 0153
E-mail bednarzr@georgetown.edu

Education

1978	Ph.D.	Economics	University of Missouri
1967	M.A.	Industrial Relations	St. Francis College
1966	B.A.	Accounting/Mathematics	College of Steubenville

Professional Experience

2004 to date Visiting Professor, Georgetown University, GPPI, teach economic analysis and international labor classes plus guide student theses. Member of the Larry Klein Board of Trustees to award annually the best articles published in the Monthly Labor Review.

1993 to 2004 Adjunct Professor of Economics, Georgetown University. Guide about 10 Masters of Public Policy students per year on their individual thesis that examines a domestic, international or foreign government policy or program using data and econometrics techniques.

1983 to 2004 Senior Economist, Division of Foreign Economic Research. Coordinate and prepare with the White House staff, Council of Economic Advisors, and DOL agencies background material for the Secretary with regard to labor issues involving the G8 countries. Member of U.S./European Union Working Group to guide and undertake projects/seminars on issues of mutual concern. Conduct economic analysis on the effects of international trade and investment on U.S. workers, especially the adjustment problems of workers in industries undergoing structural change. Conduct international comparative studies on labor market adjustment policies--what works best for whom. Design and monitor contract research program on same. Conduct seminars on labor topics for officials from developing countries.

Member of task forces (1986 and 1993) to develop labor market adjustment programs to serve dislocated workers.

Delegate and Chair (1994-1998) of Organization for Economic Cooperation & Development (OECD), Working Party on Employment that reviews and evaluates labor policy and comparative studies. Advisor to DOL delegate to OECD. Six-weeks at the OECD to design project on Adjustment in Work Organization, Training and Technology in the Service Sector. Part of OECD missions reviewing labor market policies in Poland and the Czech Republic. Participate in Technical Workshops in Poland, Russia, and Czech Republic on labor market analytical, data, and policy issues.

From October 1989 to April 1990, on loan to ILAB's Office of Foreign Relations. Responsible for design, implementation, analysis and managing DOL's technical assistance program in Poland and Hungary.

Director (1995-99) Society of Government Economists (SGE) and organizer of their labor brown-bag lunch seminars (1988-95).

1976-1980 Associate Director of FACTS Inc., consulting firm specializing in analytical solutions to private and public sector problems. Includes sample design, questionnaire development, polling and analysis of data collected.

1974-1982 Labor Economist, Bureau of Labor Statistics. Analyze labor market issues using CPS and national, state and local CES data. Review manuscripts for the Monthly Labor Review; evaluate grant proposals, and mold and guide research projects and Press Releases.

Instructor on analyzing labor market data to foreign participants from developing countries in BLS's International Training program.

Military Service

1967-1971 Submarine Service, U.S. Navy.

Honors

Distinguished Career Service Award, U.S. Department of Labor
Special Achievement Awards, U.S. Department of Labor
Lawrence Klein Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Monthly Labor Review
Citation for Professional Service and Leadership as Leading Petty officer, USS
KAMEHAMEHA (SSBN 642) 1969-71
U.S. Department of Labor Fellow 1973-74

Professional Publications

Articles.

"Employment and trade in services," with Brett Theodos, National Bureau of Asian Research (NBR), forthcoming.

“The Incidence of Earnings Mobility for Low-Wage Workers in the United States,” with Brett Theodos, Monthly Labor Review August 2006.

“Restructuring in the U.S. Informational Technology (IT) Sector: Should We Be Worrying About Offshoring?” Monthly Labor Review August 2005. This paper was prepared for the EU-US seminar "Offshoring of services in ICT and related services" in Brussels on December 13-14, 2004 under a contract from DTI Associates.

“The Importance of ‘Flexible’ Markets in Explaining U.S. and European Job Growth and Unemployment Differentials,” in Labor Market Flexibility Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Seminar, September 2001.

“Role of entrepreneurship in U.S. and European job growth,” Monthly Labor Review, July 2000.

“Contribution of New Establishments to U.S. Service Sector Job Growth,” in Entrepreneurship Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Union Seminar, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, February 2000.

“Comment” on Unemployment in Agricultural Areas: An overview of Central and Eastern Europe and a Case Study of a Bulgarian Region, Daniela Bobeva and Yordan Hristoskov, in The Regional Dimension of Unemployment in Transition Countries, OECD, Paris, 1995.

“Comment” on Labor Market Policies in Poland, Rarek Gora, and “Summary of Discussion” of Lessons from the Experience in Transition Countries: What can be Learned from the Experience, in Unemployment in Transition Countries: Transient or Persistent? OECD, Paris, 1994.

"The 'Hard-Core' Unemployed" by Robert W. Bednarzik, Chapter IV in Centre for Co-operation With the Economies in Transition, Review of the Labour Market in the Czech Republic (Paris: Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 1995).

“Geographical concentration of trade-sensitive employment,” with Robert Shelburne, Monthly Labor Review, June 1993.

“An analysis of U.S. industries sensitive to international trade, 1982-87,11 Monthly Labor Review, February 1993.

“Something New in Eastern Europe: Unemployment -A View from Poland,” in The National Economists Club Reader, ed. Robert T. Gill, Mayfield Publishing Co., 1991.

“Helping Poland cope with unemployment,” Monthly Labor Review, December 1990.

“Evaluations of Programs in Industrialized Countries to Assist Workers Displaced by Structural Change: A Summary,” Evaluation Forum, June 1990.

“Comment” on Innovation and Labour Market Adjustments, Ronald Schettkat, in The Employment Impact of New Technology, The Case of West Germany, eds. Egon Matzner and Michael Wagner, Gower Publishing Co., 1990.

"A Special Focus on Employment Growth in Business Services and Retail Trade" by Robert Bednarzik, pp. 67-79 in T. Noyelle (ed.), Skills, Wages, and Productivity in the Service Sector, Conservation of Human Resources Studies in the New Economy (Boulder, CO: Westview Press, 1990).

“Comparing U.S. and Japanese labor markets,” with Clinton Shiells, Monthly Labor Review, February 1989.

“The Quality of U.S. Jobs,” The Service Industries Journal, April 1988.

“Facilitating Worker Adjustment: Canada’s IAS Program,” Entrepreneurial Economy, May 1986.

“The impact of microelectronics on employment: Japan’s experience,” Monthly Labor Review, September 1985.

“The Behavior of Regional Unemployment Rates Over Time: Effects on Dispersion and National Unemployment,” with Richard Tiller, Journal of Regional Science, November 1983.

“Layoffs and permanent job losses: workers’ traits and cyclical patterns,” Monthly Labor Review, September 1983.

“Short workweeks during economic downturns,” Monthly Labor Review, June 1983.

“Employment and unemployment in 1981: new recession takes its toll,” with M. Hewson and M. Urquhart, Monthly Labor Review, March 1982.

“Area labor market response to national unemployment patterns,” with Richard Tiller, Monthly Labor Review, January 1982.

“Worksharing in the U.S.: its prevalence and duration,” Monthly Labor Review, July 1980.

“Employment and unemployment, a report on 1980,11 with Diane Westcott, Monthly Labor Review, February 1981.

“How many hours of work do the unemployed want?” Monthly Labor Review, December 1978.

“A profile of women on part-time schedules,” with Carol Leon, Monthly Labor Review, October 1978.

“Labor force trends: a synthesis and analysis,” with Deborah Klein, Monthly Labor Review, October 1977.

“Involuntary Part-time Work and Educational Attainment,” Journal of General Education, Summer 1976.

“The plunge of employment in the recent recession,” Monthly Labor Review, December 1975.

“Involuntary part-time work, a cyclical analysis,” Monthly Labor Review, September 1975.

Working Papers.

Review of the Labor Market Situation in the Czech Republic, with OECD researchers, OECD, Paris, Fall 1994.

Review of Labor Market Policies in Poland, with OECD researchers, OECD, Paris, Fall 1992.

U.S. Labor Market Adjustment Programs, with Malcolm Lovell, report prepared for Competitiveness Policy Council meeting, 11 Dupont Circle, NW, Washington, DC. January 1992

"Employment Dimensions of Economic Restructuring: A Review of Related Labor Policies and Programs in Industrialized Countries" by David H. Fretwell, Malcolm Lovell, and Robert W. Bednarzik, published by Population and Human Resources Division, Technical Department, Europe, Middle East and North Africa Region (Washington, DC: World Bank, April 30, 1991).

“Measures to assist workers displaced by structural change,” OECD, Paris, April 1988; also published in a revised form in Economic Adjustment and Worker Dislocation in a Competitive Society, Report of the Secretary of Labor’s Task Force on Economic Adjustment and Worker Dislocation, December 1986.

Implications of New Technologies for U.S. Employment and International Competitiveness, with Gregory K. Schoepfle, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, February 1987.

A Framework for Future Work on Technological Change and Human Resources in the Service Sector, OECD, Paris, February 1987.

“Earnings Losses of Displaced Workers,” with John Sabelhaus, Economic Discussion Paper 16, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, May 1985.

“The Effectiveness of Trade-Related Worker Adjustment Policies in the United States,” Economic Discussion Paper 15, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, February 1984.

Monographs.

Employment and Trade in Services, prepared for the National Bureau of Asian Economic Research, Seattle, WA, 2006 (in process).

Synthesis Report, European Union-United States Conference on Exploring Employment and Retention Strategies for People with Disabilities: Information Exchange, February 7-8, 2006 Washington, DC.

“A Review of Related Labor Policies and Programs in Industrialized Countries,” with David Fretwell and Malcolm Lovell, Employment Dimensions of Economic Restructuring, World Bank, April 1991.

A Micro Model of Labor Supply for Part-time Workers Using Matched CPS Data, Bureau of Labor Statistics Staff Paper 10, July 1979.

Historical and Estimated Data for US. Health Sector, 1949-1976, (contributor as a consultant) DHHS Publication No. (HRA) 81-1, September 1980.

Editor.

Meeting the Needs of Businesses and Workers in the 21st Century Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Seminar, February 2004.

Labor Market in the 21st Century: Skills and Mobility Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Seminar, September 2002.

Labor Market Flexibility Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Seminar, September 2001.

Entrepreneurship Proceedings of a Joint United States and European Union Seminar, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, February 2000.

Employment policy and the Promotion of Employability Security Proceedings of a Joint US/EU Workshop, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, April 1998.

International Seminar on the Effects of Structural Change on Employment and Education and Training in the Service Sector: A Summary, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, August 1989.

Using the Current Population Survey as a Longitudinal Survey, Bureau of Labor Statistics Report 608, August 1980.

Contributing Editor.

Improving Labor Market Opportunities and Security for Workers in Developing Countries,

Bureau of International Labor Affairs Research Symposium, Volume 1, June 2003.

HIV/AIDS in the Workplace in Developing Countries, Bureau of International Labor Affairs Research Symposium, Volume 2, June 2003.

Dissertation.

Part-time Work and Public Policy, University of Missouri, 1978.

Book Reviews.

Labor Markets and Integrating National Economies by Ronald G. Ehrenberg, SGE Newsletter 1995.

Working Hours: An Economic Analysis by John D. Owen, Monthly Labor Review, February 1981.

Ethic in Industrial America 1850-1920 by Daniel T. Rodgers, Monthly Labor Review, October 1980.

The Great Labor Uprising of 1877 by Phillip S. Foner, Monthly Labor Review, June 1979.

The Long Tunnel: A Coal Miner's Journal, by Meade Arble, Monthly Labor Review, August 1977.

The Workweek Revolution: A Guide to the Changing Workweek, by Douglas L. Fleuter, Monthly Labor Review, January 1976.

Invited Presentations

Papers.

"Comments from a User of Labor Force Survey Data," Technical Workshop on Labor Force Survey Implementation Issues, Moscow, Russia, December 1995.

"Returns to Classroom Training of Displaced Workers" by Louis Jacobson (Westat), Robert LaLonde (University of Chicago), Dan Sullivan (Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago), and Robert Bednarzik (U.S. Department of Labor), paper presented at CERF Workshop on Displaced Workers and Policy Responses, Université du Québec, Montréal, Québec, December 2-3, 1994.

Long-term Training for Dislocated Workers: The Impact on Earnings of an Innovative Program in Pittsburgh, with Louis Jacobson, 68th Annual Western Economic Association International Conference, Lake Tahoe, June 20-24, 1993.

The Geographical Concentration of Employment and Its Implications for Trade and Employment, with Robert Shelburne, Annual Meetings of the Southwestern Society of Economists, San Antonio, TX, March 4-6, 1992.

Trade-sensitive U.S. industries: employment trends and worker characteristics, 66th Annual Western Economic Association International Conference, Seattle, June 29-July 3, 1991.

“Employment Profile of the Service Sector in Selected Countries,” International seminar on the Effects of Structural Change on Employment and Education and Training in the Service Sector, Project on Technological Change and Human Resource Development in the Service Sector, organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 1989.

Structural Change and Labor Market Adjustment: A United States-Japan comparison, Management of Advanced Technology, Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, MA. April 1988.

Economic Adjustment and Worker Dislocation in a Competitive Society, and U.S. Employment Trends in the service sector, International Conference on Changing Technology, Skills and Skill Formation in the Service Sector, National Institute of Employment and Vocational Research, Tokyo, Japan, June 15-18, 1987.

Programs for Displaced Workers: U.S. Compared to Canada, Australia, and Japan, Robots and Foreign Affairs Symposium, Center for the Study of Foreign Affairs, Washington, August 1985.

A Detailed Analysis of Regional and State Unemployment Patterns in the U.S.: 1967-1980, Atlantic Economic Society meetings, fall 1981.

Worksharing and Its Duration, Southwestern Economic Association meetings, Spring 1980.

Part-time Work: Research and State-of-the-Art, National Conference on Alternative Work Schedules, spring 1977.

Discussant.

Labor Mobility, U.S. - EU Conference, April 6-7. 2006

Labor Market Policy in Poland, by Marek Gora, Technical Workshop on Unemployment Persistence in Central and Eastern Europe, OECD, Paris, September 30 - October 2, 1993.

Innovation and Labor Market Dynamics, by Ronald Schettkat, International Conference on New Technology: It's Impact on Labor Markets and the Employment System, Berlin, December 5-7, 1988.

Changing Skill Requirements, by David R. Howell, Session on Computer-Based Technologies and Productivity, Employment and Trade, AEA meetings, December 1987.

Dislocation Studies and Policy, by Louis Jacobson, Atlantic Economic Society meetings, spring 1987.

Retirement Decisions as Affected by Recent Changes in the ADEA, Southwestern Economic Association meetings, spring 1979.

Measuring Labor Market Related Hardship, Southwestern Economic Association meetings, spring 1978.